Dear Bill:

Thank you so much for all you did to make our weekend in Dayton such a success. I felt so good about the weekend and about what I hope we were able to accomplish by our visit. You, obviously, were responsible in great degree for the success of all of our activities, especially the Herald of Truth meeting on Saturday and the wonderful youth meeting on Saturday evening.

I know that you did this in the midst of your own personal health problems. I send you my prayers and deepest concern for your continued improvement and restoration to full health. Thank you so much for having Dale and I in your home. We appreciated it so much. Thank you again and we look forward to many such opportunities in the future.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
